I'KENNA FORDIVISION

FAVORS TWO JUDICIAL DIVISIONS IN KANSAS.

FOSTER CAN'T DO THE WORK.

MEANS THAT THE BILL HAS M'KIN-LEY'S INDORSEMENT.

Now the Question Is. Can the Bill Be Passed!-Judge Broderick Known to Have Judicial Aspirations-First District Situation.

Washington, Jan. 13.-(Special.) Repre sentative Broderick, of the house commit-tee on judiciary, has received the written opinion of Attorney General McKenna repecting the bill to divide the state of Kan sas into two judicial districts, now in the hands of the judiciary committee. The at torney general briefly reviews the circumstances connected with the protracted ill-ness of Judge Foster, declares that one judge is physically unable to discharge the business of the court, and recommends that relief be extended by the most practicable method at hand, that of dividing the state into districts.

This, of course, is the White House indorsement of the bill. It is very plain that the president will add his name to the hill should it reach him.

The violent influence for the bill displayed before Sterne was appointed marshal of Kansas is not so terribly violent now. There is a disposition to demand the appointment of Crum before working for a division of the state. With some, of course it depends upon who is to be appointed whether or not they will work for the passage of the bill.

It is well known that Judge Broderick haw judicial aspirations, and that many have referred to him as a possibility when a judge is to be appointed in Kansas. This would somewhat adjudicate First district matters, but that is just what Leland does no want done. He wants to use Broderick and Curtis against each other and slip in erick made judge. Should Broderick ge the position he has always wanted, it wo cettle matters in the First district and there would be no occasion for doubt as to the

It is likely, however, that Leland can defeat the appointment of Broderick and thus the tangle in the First and then as to the other places there is speculation nator Baker is charged with being op posed to allowing anyone to trespass or is potato patch, and it is not likely that he will give to the opposition anything, even if they should claim they would defeat the bill. It matters little to him, an he has the top hand, both as to the pas-sage of the bill and as to selecting those to fill places thus created.

UPHOLDING HOME RULE.

Senate Committee on Indian Affairs Will Try to Turn Down Carpetbaggers.

Washington, Jan. 13.—(Special.) The sen-ate committee on Indian affairs is going to enforce the home rule doctrine in reard to all appointments coming before it for action, and is given an earnest of its devotion to this doctrine in manner not to be mistaken. The commit tee has referred the nomination of four appointees to Indian agencies because they ritories to which they were assigned for duty. The quartette includes Ed Goldberg, of Wichita Kas, who was appointed agent at the Quapaw agency in the Indian Ter ritory. Goldberg was a candidate for the Union agency of the five civilized tribes, but found on arriving here that the place acceeded in having himself assigned to the Quapaw agency. The Indian agents are appointed by the president. Goldberg is acquainted with the president. He at one time lived in Ohio, and was active in cam-paign work in Canton. His appointment to the Quapaw agency was somewhat of a personal matter with the president, and the refusal of the committee to report his nomination favorably will not be received kindly at the White House.

The head of the committee is Senator Pet tigrew, of South Dakota, who bolted Mc-Kinley's nomination, and he is supported in his position in regard to home rule by Senator Allen, of Nebraska, who has been holding the balance of power, in the absence of sundry Republican senators, members of the Indian committee.

The other nominees rejected are: Free B. Spriggs, of New York, to be agent with Nevada agency; Charles S. McNichols, of Momence, Ill., at the Colorado Run agency, and Charles D. Keyes, of Texas, at the

MORE POSTOFFICE RED TAPE Postmasters Must Submit Nominations for All Employes to Department at Washington.

Washington, Jan. 13 .- Postmaster General Gary to-day approved an order that postmasters shall make no new appointment or fill a vacancy for a clerk or other employe, paid from the clerk-hire allow-ances made by the department, without first submitting a nomination to the department for such appointment, and receiving authority to make it. Heretofore, postmasters have been given a lump sum for clerk hire, but the system has been found to work unsatisfactorily. By the opera-tion of the new system every dollar spent by the postmasters will be under the direct supervision of the officials at Washington.

- It Is Marshal Sterne Now. Topeka, Kas., Jan. 13.—(Special.) W. E. Sterie received his commission as United States marshal late this evening, and impediately filed his bond with Judge Foster and took his oath of office. Dr. Neely turned over the office after supper. Mar-shal Sterne will not appoint any deputies for a few days, until he gets his bearings. The old force of Democrats will be retained temporarily.

OKLAHOMANS UPSET.

All at Sea in Regard to the Long Expected Judicial Appointments.

lahoma contingent is considerably upset in consequence of the failure of the president to send in the names of the men who are to occupy the territorial bench as the successors of the four Democrat judges whose terms have expired. Those who predicted that the nominations would be made yesterday thought they were giving themselves terday thought they were giving themselves a wide margin as to limit, but are just as much at sea to-day as they were a week ago. The only new development in the situation to-day is the report that the president has personally asked the attorney general to select the judges before his retirement. McKenna some time ago gave out the information that he would clear the Oklahoma situation before he went on the bench of the supreme court. This is the only thing that is keeping up the drooping spirits of the candidates, who think that the appointments will be made soon, but have given up trying to fix a date.

THE LADY SYKES SUIT.

Several Witnesses Testify to the Genuineness of the Signatures Alleged to Be Forged. London, Jan. 13.-The hearing of the suit of Daniel Jay, a money lender, to recover from Lady Sykes, wife of Sir Tatton Sykes, the sum of £15,870 lent to her ladyship in 1896 on the security of notes purporting to be signed by her husband, was continued to-day. The defendant repudiated the suggestion of counsel that she had, in 189 obtained from the Union bank the sum of £10,000 on a forged guarantee which her husband afterward recovered and burned in order to avoid scandal.

sel said that it was proposed to show that between 1890 and 1896, Sir Tatton Sykes gave his wife £125,000. The witness remarked that this represented the accumulations and renewals of twenty years.

Replying to the judge, Lady Sykes said she had always been and still was on the best terms with her husband and had never had a cross word with him in her life.

R. P. Beresford, the tutor of the Sykes son, testified that the signatures were undoubtedly genuine and created a sensation son, testified that the signatures were undoubtedly genuine and created a sensation by suggesting that Sir Tatton Sykes was insane. Mr. Beresford added that he had known Sir Tatton to wear seven or eight coats simultaneously.

Other witnesses testified to the genuineness of the signatures and a Monte Carlo banker testified to seeing Sir Tatton Sykes sign checks which he afterwards repudiated.

Replying to a remark of the judge, coun

After two experts had testified to the genuineness of Sir Tatton Sykes' signatures, the case was again adjourned.

ALTERED THE RECORDS.

Chicago Civil Service Commission Charged With Hiding Crookedness From Lexowers. Chicago, Jan. 13.-Charges of a sensational character were made against the civil service commissioner's office before the Lexow committee to-day,

It was charged by Attorney E. R. Bliss that some one during the night following the last day of the appearance of President Kraus and his associates before the con mittee, altered and falsified the records of the civil service commission so that they would not show the names of twenty-eight men which are said to have been added to the eligible police list without authority of law. Attorney Bliss asked that the civi service commission be subpoenaed to appear and bring the records of the office relating to the twenty-eight men in question, and also that Secretary and Chief Examiner John M. Glenn be ordered to Examiner John M. Glenn be ordered to come before the committee as a witness. Senator Berry stated that he proposed to have a rigid investigation into the charges and that in all probability Mayor Harrison, Chief of Police Kipley and others would be called upon, John H. Hamline, of the civil service reform league, has also been sub-noened.

KETCHAM VERDICT SET ASIDE. Big Blacklisting Suit Which Grew Out of Deba' Strike Must Be Tried Again. Chicago, Jan. 13.-The big verdict given Engineer Fred R. Ketcham against the Chicago & Northwestern railroad for alleged blacklisting was to-day set aside by Judge Richard W. Clifford. A new trial is granted. By the verdict Ketcham has been awarded $21,000 damages. The case was an outgrowth of the Debs strike.

The ground upon which the court sets aside the verdict and grants a new trial is that of an improper instruction given to the jury in the plaintiff's behalf. The court said, in giving his decision, that the reviewing court would need nothing more than a mere inspection of the verdict to set

NO STRIFE AT KINGFISHER STATE HOOD CONVENTION.

PREDICTIONS NOT VERIFIED.

NO TEST AS TO SINGLE OR DOUBLE STATEHOOD.

Free Homes Bill Also Indorsed-Re publican Delegates From All Counties but Logan-Repub-Hean Free Homes Conference Held.

Kingfisher, O. T., Jan. 13.-(Special.) The best humored, most representative and most harmonious statehood convention yet held in Oklahoma assembled to-night in the opera house. It was called to order by Vir-gil H. Hobbs, chairman of the free silver committee. Mayor Corbett, of Kingfisher expressed the welcome of the city and Sid ney Clark, chairman of the statehood executive committee, responded with a con-vincing argument for statehood. Frank E. Gillette, of El Reno, was elected chairman and C. C. Hudson, of Guthrie, and J. L. Isenberg, of Enid, secretaries. Committees on credentials and resolutions were appointed and while they were preparing their reports Frank McMasters was called upon and responded with an entertaining talk about the necessities for a state government. Colonel Bradley, of Kingfisher, made an earnest plea for the substitution of patriotism for partisanship in the consideration of matters pertaining to state-The committee on credentials reported that there were no contests. Republican delegations were present from all counties but Logan. The committee on resolutions submitted the following report, which was adopted:

"Resolved, That the people of Oklahoma territory, assembled in delegate convention at Kingfisher, O. T., for the purpose of considering the statehood question, earnestly urge upon the congress of the United States to pass an enabling act at the present session, providing for the admission of Oklahoma as a state, with such boundaries as, in the wisdom of congress, will best subserve the cause of good government; provided, that if Oklahoma and the Indian Territory are included in the enabling act, that the residents in each of the five civilized tribes and in Oklahoma shall vote separately upon the acceptance or rejection of a state constitution, which shall be operative for such of said sections as ac cept it. "Resolved. That this convention earnestly favors the passage of the free homes bill which has passed the United States senate and is now pending in the house of representatives."

The report was signed by John H. Pitzer, Sidney Clarke, Roy E. Stafford, J. V. Admore, Joseph Wisby, committee.

A permanent statehood executive committee, consisting of Joseph Wisby, C. C. Hudson, Sidney Clarke, Colonel Bradley and T. B. Ferguson, was appointed. At 10 o'clock, the convention adjourned, the gloomy predictions of disorder and strife not having been realized.

It can hardly be said that the sentiment for immediate statehood was unanimous, for at no time, either in the convention or the party caucuses, was a roll call of counties permitted. Neither was the single statehood and the double statehood advocates. The result, however, sion of territorial sentiment, is gratifying because of the good order and good sense that controlled the deliberations of the

of Their Own. Kingfisher, O. T., Jan. 13 - (Special.) A conference of the Republican delegates to the statehood convention was called to order this afternoon by William Grimes, chairman of the territorial Republican committee. L. P. King, of Waukomis, was elected chairman, and H. B. Gilstrap, of Chandler, and C. A. McBrian, of Watonga, were chosen secretaries. The usual com-mittees were appointed. Short addresses were made by Governor Seay, Governor Barnes, George Orner, T. B. Ferguson, Colonel Bradley, W. G. McDonald, Dick L. Morgan and J. W. McNeal. The resolutions committee, made up of Seymour S Price, F. E. Gillette, J. V. Admire, Elbert W. Hoyt and Harper S. Cunningham, reported the following, which were adopted:

"Whereas, Since the return of the Republican party to power in these United States the country is restored to the old-time prosperity that has ever characterized an enforcement of the principles of that party.
"Resolved, That we declare an unswerying faith and allegiance to its platform and patriotic purposes. We congratulate the people of Oklahoma upon the prosperity now enjoyed under the administration of President McKinley, and the establishmen of the protective policy under which this country has been rapidly developed and the people have always prospered.

"Resolved, That we heartily indorse the administration of Governor Barnes and those associated with him in the management of the business affairs of the territory of Ok/ahoma, and point with great pride to the excellent management of the school land department, whereby the immense fund collected from the uncollected obliga-dons left over from the former administration proves the successful business adminis tration of the present officials, and com mends them to the approbation of the per ple of Oklahoma.

"Resolved, That we indorse the undying efforts of Hon. William Grimes, as chairman of the territorial Republican central committee, through whose energetic and undying efforts our party has been held intact and given the precedence over all other political organizations in the territory of Oklahoma.

inct and given the precedence over all other political organizations in the territory of Okiahoma.

"Resolved, That we extend to Hon. C. H. Grosvenor, of Ohio, our sincere congratulations for his able expose in the house of representatives of the tendency of the so-called civil service reform to subvert the essential principles of a republican form of government. We believe that the present law on this subject should be modified or amended so that the avenues to official positions shall be open to all the citizens of the United States.

"Resolved, That we congratulate the Republicans of the state of Ohio on the selection of that stalwart and invincible standard bearer of Republicanism, Hon. M. A. Hanna, to the United States senate, his selection being a victory over attempted perfidy in an effort to thwart the manifest will of the people of that state.

"Resolved. That the homestend law is the original invention of the Republican party. Under its operation, the great West has become populated with industrious, prosperous and patriotic American citizens. The law is founded on justice, humanity, throad and liberal statesmanship. The Republican party of Oklahoma now asks to have this law restored to the people. It has, under the name of the free homes bill, received the lindorsement of the national Republican party. The convention which nominated President McKinley promised the people that this law should be restored, and incorporated this pledge in its national platform. We now, therefore, respectfully, but firmly, demand that the Republican members of congress shall thill this sacred pledge by the passage of the free homes bill, which has already passed the senate of the United States and is now pending before the nouse of representatives, at the earliest possible moment.

"Resolved, That we indorse the declaration made by the Republican party of this resentatives, at the earliest possible moment.

"Resolved. That we indorse the declaration made by the Republican party of this territory at its congressional convention in 1896, upon the question of statehood, which is substantially as follows:

"Resolved. That the Republicans of Oklahoma Territory, in delegate convention assembled, earnestly urge upon the congress of the United States to pass an enabling act in its present session, providing for the admission of Oklahoma as a state with such boundaries as in the wisdom of congress will best subserve the cause of good government."

Dan Perry pesided and R. E. Bray acted as Perry pesided and R. E. Bray acted as secretary. Resolutions on statehood were adopted almost identical with those framed by the Republican convention. They also approved free homes and opposed the leasing of the Klowa and Comanche Jands. There was a strong sentiment from the eastern part of the territory opposed to statehood, but the prearranged plan of the managers went through just the same.
